

Department of Business Design Admission Policy

We seek people who understand the educational goals and academic requirements of Showa Women's University, those who aim to become leaders in various business fields, those who find issues on their own and work toward solutions, and those whose career plans are informed by a global perspective and knowledge of the world. Furthermore, we accept people with the capacity and ability to successfully complete the course of study of the department. We therefore recruit applicants through various comprehensive entrance methods.

1. Recommended field of study and subjects to learn before entrance

- Foreign Language: The student should learn the 4 skills of English demanded before graduation, and be able to utilize the language.
- Language Arts: The student should be able to speak, listen, write, read and think logically.
- Mathematics: The student should be able to understand the mathematical knowledge necessary for analysis of data related to society and economy.
- Geographic History: The student should be able to understand the history and culture of various regions of the world and to express her ideas about them.

Note: In order to cultivate interest in various fields, we recommend that the student take a good balance of classes in a variety of fields. Furthermore, we recommend that you learn to use a PC.

2. Learning habits to have before entrance

- Having an interest in and gathering information about domestic and international social and economic issues.
- Being able to give logical explanations using math and data.
- The student should be open-minded and be aware of other a wide range of viewpoints.
- The student should be able to communicate with people from different cultures and backgrounds and should aim to acquire a global perspective.