

Admission Policy

We seek individuals who understand the educational goals and degree requirements of Showa Women's University and who aspire to be self-reliant and effective in the international community. Ideal candidates should be eager to learn with an open and creative mindset, free from narrow preconceptions, and committed to continuous self-improvement, believing in their potential. We welcome applicants who have the qualities and abilities to succeed in our department's curriculum. We use various admission methods to recruit applicants and select them based on a comprehensive evaluation.

1. Recommended Subjects and Courses Before Admission

- Japanese: Understand Japanese used in everyday situations and have a certain level of comprehension of academic Japanese at the university level.
- English: Have basic skills in the four English language areas (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and the ability to apply them.
- Geography and History: Have an interest in and the ability to explore the history, society, and culture of different regions around the world.

2. Recommended Study Habits Before Admission

- Assess your proficiency in the four Japanese and English skills and work to improve them.
- Read newspapers and magazines daily to understand the politics, economy, society, and culture of both the international community and Japanese society.
- Actively make efforts to learn about different cultures and societies.
